Emmet Orr of Covington, who recently resigned as chief deputy United States marshal of the Eastern district, belives that the Republicans and Progressives can get together in Kentucky and unite on a candidate like Col. Richard P. Ernst of Covington, for United States senator, Mr. Orr said Col, Ernst would "mop up" with any Democrat who might oppose him in the Sixth congressional district, and he declared that he would practically poll the solid Moose vote in the State.

REPUBLICANS IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

In 1912 the "regular" Republicans of South Dakota were so demoralized and inconsequential that the names of the Taft electors were not placed on the Republican ticket, but the Roosevelt electors were printed thereon instead. But recently there was a primary election in South Dakota. It resulted in the nomination of Congressman Charles P. Burke, a stalwart Republican, for United States Senator by a comfortable majority over Senator famous Rye Whisky with you and Cooks Imperial, per pint 85 Coe I. Crawford the Progressive Republican candidate. So it goes all over the Union.

LICENSE TO CUSS.

South Carolina has been doing foolish things mended by physicians to their pa since it was run off by the surveyor. This time its tients. highest court has held that a woman may use cuss words if she wants to. It is bad enough for us poor ereeping mortals of the dust to be permitted to let out a whoop and an oath when we step on a tack while meandering about during the midnight hour dodging chairs and footstools, singing a melody of lullabys coaxing the "next president" into slumber, but for God's choicest creation to be legally authorized to plainly cuss at will, spoiling those cherry lips with a withering frost of vituperation. it is all wrong, and the court should be ashamed Ky., Lodge No. 530, are many discipleof itself for granting the license. Thanks be it there are thousands of good women of that State who will revolt and not accept the priivlege. -Portsmouth Times.
